Now For the New Year's Things

Eggs Are Promised as Appropriate Gifts and Prices Are "Shaded" a Trifle for Those Who Have Money.

IT IS one holiday after another with the marketmen. As soon as Christmas has been checked off the calendar preparations are started for the New Year's holiday rush for New Year's dinners with all the trimmings. Eggs are promised as appropriate

New Year's gifts by the stall keepers in the poultry division of the markets. Tied with a neat bow they are both elegant and edible. To make them especially attractive the markets are promising to have the eggs down within the reach of the local egg at least. Fifty cent eggs will be down to

Mexican "John D" Who Must Buy Son's Life For $500,000 Dollars

GEN. LUIS TERRAZAS

"Half a million in gold, or your son's life is forfeit," is the threat "Pancho" Villa, the rebel leader, now in possession of Chihuahua, has sent to "the Croesus of Mexico," who recently reached El Paso, after a flight across the deserts of Chihuahua to save his life a part of his fortune, which he is said to have brought. Young Terrazas is a captive in the hands of Villa at Chihuahua, and unless his father complies with the rebel general's demand, he will be executed, according to the reports.

FIVE SHOW SKILL IN GETTING LIQUOR

Grand Junction, Colo., Dec. 26.—The remarkable facility with which five inmates of the city jail have been able to attract liquor to themselves is mystifying the city authorities. The men consumed a barrel of bottled beer from the city jail, following the purloining Wednesday of a gallon of whiskey. The barrel stood in a cell eight feet from the corridor door. The prisoners in some manner moved this barrel to the door, where they could reach through the bars and remove the contents. When transient officer Allison discovered the state of affairs there were only 18 filled bottles left in the barrel. The prisoners had stopped up a sink and had 20 bottles standing in cold water. There was no trace of a rake or hook that the prisoners could have used in getting the beer to the door. All the prisoners were placed in separate cells. The liquor was taken three months ago from a local cigar store.

CARLSON KILLS HIS MOTHER BY MISTAKE

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 26.—Mistaking his mother for a burglar, he says, Carl P. Carlson shot and killed her just at midnight. Mother and son, who lived alone, were in fear of burglars, and when the mother stepped out on the porch just before retiring, unknown to the man, and he saw a shadow through the window, he fired at the supposed burglar, inflicting a wound from which his mother died an hour after.
